HEAD START: NORTH DAKOTA

Head Start is a federal program that includes Head Start Preschool, which serves children ages 3 to 5, and Early Head Start, which supports infants, toddlers under age three, pregnant women, and their families. Both programs provide comprehensive, high-quality services that support early learning, health, nutrition, and family well-being. Children are eligible if their family income is below the federal poverty line ($32,150 for a family of four), they are in foster care, or they are experiencing homelessness.

Head Start reflects the needs of each community it serves. Federal funds go directly to local grantees who operate programs in rural, urban, and suburban communities in a variety of settings, including centers, family child care, churches, and schools. Each program relies on input from parents and community members to ensure services are tailored and effective. This flexibility also allows programs to draw on other local, state, and federal funding to maximize their reach and impact.

North Dakota received $40,344,924 for Head Start and Early Head Start in FY2024<sup>1</sup> offering services at 56 program sites.<sup>2</sup>

Head Start's impact extends beyond the program itself. Many state and local early learning systems are built around Head Start, relying on these grants, paired with other funding sources, to serve children from a variety of backgrounds. In this way, Head Start has become inextricable from child care and preschool programs in cities and states nationwide.

With its robust developmental screenings and requirement to reserve at least 10% of enrollment for children with disabilities, Head Start plays a crucial role in helping children and families access IDEA services.

Head Start provides early learning, health, nutrition, and family well-being services for young children.

HEAD START'S IMPACT ON CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Head Start touches many aspects of children's development and well-being. While enrolled in Head Start, children receive high-quality early learning and care that encourages learning through play and physical activity. Programs also provide healthy meals and snacks, as well as medical, dental, hearing, vision, and behavioral health screenings.

Families are engaged as essential partners in their child's success, and Head Start's wrap-around services remove logistical hurdles allowing parents to earn a living or finish their education. This is particularly true in rural communities, where a lack of child care options, transportation, and other factors often create additional barriers for parents.

Of the families served in North Dakota, 1,620 have one or more parents employed, in school, or in job training.<sup>7</sup>

 As a result, Head Start alumni are more likely to be kindergarten ready, graduate from high school, and secure stable jobs.<sup>8</sup>

Head Start families are also more engaged in their children's learning<sup>9</sup> and are more likely to advance their own education.<sup>10</sup>
